Celebrating the Down syndrome community and supporting the mission of NDSS.

2022 Honoreee: David Egan
Join us as we come together from coast to coast to celebrate our loved ones with Down syndrome and support the mission of NDSS during A Night of Celebration. This exciting virtual event will include an online auction featuring fabulous items from across the country, celebration gifts for guests, entertainment, guest appearances, and of course, a virtual dance party!

2022 Honoree: David Egan

David Egan is a trail blazer and champion of the rights of persons with disabilities having served as a Special Olympics Sargent Shriver International Global Messenger and a Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Public Policy Fellow (first person with intellectual disability to be selected in this position) working with the Ways and Means Social Security Subcommittee and the National Down Syndrome Society. He serves on several boards and represents individuals with Down syndrome on the NIH DS Consortium. He is the author of More Alike Than Different: My Life with Down Syndrome. With more than 20 years of competitive employment from a clerk position to a career of advocacy, he currently works at SourceAmerica as a community relations coordinator in Vienna VA.
